MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF, POLITICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE

SUBJECT: PSB Staff Meeting, 22 June 1953.

25X1A

[REDACTED] reviewed the items for Wednesday's agenda.

25X1A

Item 1 concerns a plan being prepared by C. D. Jackson to exploit the situation in East Berlin and the satellites over a period of the next 60 days. At the time of the meeting no one at CIA had seen the plan, but I understand [REDACTED] was to be consulted this afternoon.

25X1A

Item 2 concerns a request to move certain radio functions of the IIA to Washington, and suggests the formation of an inter-departmental panel to discuss broadcasting frequencies. [REDACTED] is preparing a brief memo for DCI in conjunction with [REDACTED] of the Communications office. 25X1A 25X1A

[REDACTED] said that certain differences exist between State and CIA on the Thailand paper (D-23) considered last week. He said C. D. Jackson will attempt to resolve the differences by personal contact with representatives of the agencies.
